FINAL DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1,3,5-15,17-18 are allowed.
2. Claims 21-23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claim 19 recites the limitation "the manner" in step G. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2645

6. Claims 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Miner et al. (US 5,652,789).

As to Claim 19, with respect to Figure 26-30, Miner teaches a method of scheduling a reminder call from an automated, computerized voice message storage and redelivery system (SRS) and receiving by a subscriber a reminder call from the SRS comprising the steps of:

A. providing to the SRS when a reminder call is to be made by the SRS (Col. 40, lines 15-34);

B. providing to the SRS by a subscriber, telephone numbers associated with a subscriber that are to be called by the SRS to deliver a reminder call and information as to whether the telephone associated with the numbers will be answered by a party (human voice or a digital voice) (Col. 41, lines 23-36 and Col. 35, lines 14-40);

C. providing to the SRS the message to be included in the reminder call (Col. 40, lines 6-15);

D. recording by the SRS the information provided in step A (Col. 40, lines 6-15);

E. calling a telephone number of step B as provided in step A (Col. 41, lines 23-30);

F. if the telephone number of step E is answered, determining by the SRS if a subscriber (human voice or digital voice) has answered the telephone (Col. 41, lines 40-42); and

G. selecting the manner in which the message of step C will be delivered based upon the determination of step F (Col. 41, lines 42-52).

As to Claim 20, Miner teaches the method of Claim 19 wherein step A includes the step of:

Art Unit: 2645

H. providing to the SRS that steps B-G will be rescheduled (repeated on predetermined days and at predetermined times) (Col. 41, lines 44-50).

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed in the 12/27/04 Remarks have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because of the following:

Claims 19-20 are rejected for the reasons given in the instant office action. Examiner respectfully invites Applicants to contact Examiner to discuss possible amendments for overcoming the prior art of record.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Tuttle (US 6,324,262) teaches message delivery with answering machine detection.

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
